The Chairman introduced the members.

New Business

1. Review of proposed replacement of the existing signage for the Express Mart located at 3152 Chili Avenue, Rochester New York Christopher B Sweeney representing Express Mart made the presentation. Mr. Sweeney explained that the sign was being replaced because it was outdated and also for employee safety reasons.

Committee member comments:

Matt Emens asked questions relative to the construction of the sign and whether it was internally lit or not. Mr. Emens answered Mr. Sweeney's question of if the A.A.C. committee had jurisdiction of regulating the height of the sign. Mr. Emens informed the applicant that it was the Zoning Boards jurisdiction. Mr. Emens approved the new design.

James Ignatowski asked what was the diameter and color of the main support column. Mr. Ignatowski also asked if the anchor bolts at the base of the main support column will be concealed by new plantings to which Mr. Sweeney answered yes. Mr. Ignatowski approved the new design.

Mr. Sweeney made several references indicating that the plantings surrounding the existing sign will be updated and improved.

Mr. Ignatowski stated that a final decision of approval could not be made due to the lack of a quorum.
