MINUTES:

The March 1, 2016 Meeting minutes were approved with minor corrections.

GUESTS:

28 Madera Drive: The homeowner Joanne Rodriguez came before the Committee to ask about the progress regarding her drainage problem that is referenced in the October 2014 Drainage Committee Minutes. Matt pointed out that Brian was not here to answer her questions regarding what recommendations the Town had come up with to help. He indicated that he would communicate her concerns to Brian, and that she should expect to hear from him within the next few days.

475 Morgan Rd.: Brad Heye, the homeowner came in support of Joanne Rodriguez and reiterated the ongoing drainage problems that she continues to have in her drive way. The committee noted his concerns, and indicated that there would be follow-up discussions at the next meeting, after Brian had a chance to speak with Ms. Rodriguez.

OLD BUSINESS and WORK COMPLETED:

There was no old business or incomplete work to discuss.

NEW BUSINESS:

Brian Ostling was contacted prior to the meeting and indicated verbally that there was no new business at this time.

MEETING PROJECT REVIEW:

March 8, 2016 Chili Planning Board

Review Black Creek Industrial Park at 3513 Union St. Application of SMATTL Holdings, LLC Application heard and tabled at the March 8 Planning Board Meeting. Matt Sinacola attended that meeting and commented on a few topics discussed. The Committee looked at the Plans for the project, and discussed some aspects of the drainage Plans. Matt voiced some concerns about the lack of flexibility in the Building plans to account for grading and drainage in such close proximity to a Federally Protected Wetland.

March 22, 2016 Zoning Board of Appeals

Review of Chili Plaza Properties

FUTURE MEETING PROJECT REVIEW:

(No Committee review was conducted on the future application items)
