Historic Landmark Designation

Notice to Property Owners of Potential Historic Landmarks:

The Historic Preservation Board greatly appreciates your willingness to have your property considered to become a designated Historic Landmark in Chili, New York.

This packet contains:

1. Application for Registering Historic Properties
2. Building / Structure Inventory Form
3. A copy of our Local Preservation Law

These documents are also available on the town's website (townofchili.org) to view and download.

It is important to note that the Historic Preservation Board will include only those buildings that you, the property owner, request to be designated as part of the Historic Landmark. The building / structure inventory may include, in addition to a house, such items as barns, garages, or other structures. Ass structures not listed will not be considered under the provisions of the local law.

Please complete the application and inventory form and return it to the Chairperson of the Chili Historic Preservation Board, 3333 Chili Avenue, Rochester, New York 14624.
