FORT NIGHT FAMILY CAMP OUT

Tonight is fort night, no not that fortnite! As a family or couple, rearrange your living room to create plenty of space and gather up as many pillows and blankets as you can. These will be essential for your forts and your home base for a family campout. As a team come up with plans for the night. We think a S'more bar should be mandatory but other ideas are a movie, turn the lights off, themed snacks, cards games. We cannot wait to see what you come up with, snap a photo and share how you and your family gets down at your campground.
